

Clinical Analytics

Trial.Protocol.Site

Propelled by the increasing adoption of clinical information systems, clinical analytics is emerging as a critical competency to help payers and integrated health delivery systems better manage risk and improve patient outcomes.

Vitrana clinical software solution experts have average experience of 12 years with deep understanding of market requirements and clinical software products with focus on innovation and client satisfaction.

Visit Us
www.vitrana.com

Contact us at info@vitrana.com

Clinical Practice

Accelerate clinical trials operations with Vitrana's product solutions and proven capabilities in implementing complex solutions at major biopharma companies across the world with unparalleled cost advantage. Our seasoned industry experts encourage improvement of business processes with risk-based monitoring strategies, fraud monitoring, efficient site selection and reduced workload by integration clinical with safety operations.

Discover, Planning & Design

- Project planning
- User requirements workshops
- Functional and technical design
- What if analysis and forecasting

Integration

- Integration between clinical systems, safety and healthcare systems.
- Import subject/subject visit data from EDC systems into CTMS
- Export data from CTMS via EAI, scripts etc
- Clinical data warehouse

Reporting & Analytics

- Installation, configuration & customization of clinical development analytics
- Custom warehouse & ETL solutions
- Analysis, design & development of business intelligence reports & analytics

Validation

- Validation strategy and planning
- Test execution & support
- UAT planning and execution support

Configuration & Customization

- Installation and configuration
- Database administration and optimization
- Process re-engineering
- Upgrade
- End User / Administrator Training

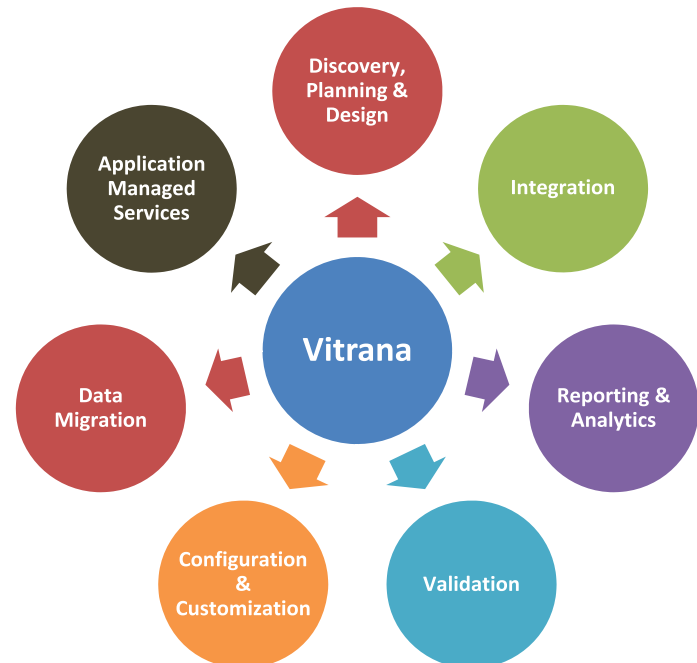

Data Migration

- Data profiling and remediation
- Data migration development
- Data migration cut-over

Application Management Services

- Incident management
- Problem management
- Change management
- Application monitoring
- Performance management

Core Competencies

Product Solutions

